HAS WITNESS DEPARTED Detective Who Obtained Rosa Confession Said to Have Left City. DISTRICT ATTORNEY SAYS NO Told a Tribune Reporter That He Would Probably Call Him Today - A Good Deal of Testimony of a Circumstantial Character Heard Yesterday. There was no specially sensational feature in the trial of Leonardo Rosa, for the murder of Vito Lausiso, which was continued yesterday before Judge Edwards. The evidence adduced was of a circumstantial character. A Tribune reporter was informed by Italians who are taking a strong interest in the case that the Italian detective, who obtained a confession from Rosa in his cell in the county jail, had left the city, and that the Commonwealth would be unable to reach him. District Attorney Jones, when approached regarding the matter, denied that the detective had left the city, and said he would probably be called to the stand today. Among the witnesses examined yesterday was Mrs. Amelia Noll, wife of Augustino Noll, who is spending the winter in the Eastern penitentiary for the murder of Joseph Prignano at Dunmore two years ago. The testimony of Pabiano, the first witness sworn, was continued yesterday morning. Coroner John A. Kelley was put upon the stand and gave evidence in relation to the wounds on the body. James Coalton, John Taylor and Francis O'Hara testified in regard to finding the body in the morning. O'Hara heard shots early in the morning, about 2 o'clock. Mary Corbo, an old Italian woman, mother of the wife of the man with whom Rosa and the others who were out with Lausiso that night boarded, was next sworn. On account of the inability of Interpreter Morisani to understand her dialect she was withdrawn. However, she swore that she heard Rosa say that Lausiso owed him $40, and if he did not pay him he would get justice. A few other witnesses were sworn whose testimony for or against the defendant did not amount to anything. Judge Ward's Leading Question. Dominick Pace, an Italian, who could not speak English, was put upon the witness stand at 10 o'clock. His evidence consisted in the fact that Lausiso owed him $40, and if he did not pay him he would get justice. A few other witnesses were sworn whose testimony for or against the defendant did not amount to anything. Judge Ward's Leading Question. SCRANTON WON. Small Crowd Saw Pottsville Team Go Under. A small crowd yesterday saw Scranton win from Pottsville's State league team by a score of 8 to 3. The Scrantons made one more error and three more hits than their opponents. There were left on bases nine Pottsville and eight Scranton players. Brown, the ex-Baltimore southpaw twirler, pitched for Scranton until the sixth inning, when W. J. Johnson went into the box. The score: SCRANTON. R. H. O. A. E. Princeton Beats Georgetown, Who Defeated Yale, Who Defeated New York. Special to the Scranton Tribune. Washington, April 16.—Princeton defeated Georgetown today by a score of 12 to 7 in a game which was marred by the wildness of both pitchers, Altman and McCreey, each of them giving nine bases on hits. In addition to this Altman struck four men and McCreey had two disastrous wild pitches. Hitting and fielding honors were about even, although Princeton surpassed in all around team work. The feature of the game was the work of Brooks at short stop and Payne in left field. Williams played an excellent game behind the bat. Murphy and Gunster, the two Scranton third basemen, seemed to have an off day, but the errors which are accredited to them were all of the excusable kind. Murphy cut off a run at the plate by a beautiful stop and throw, and also made a corking hit, while Gunster accepted three hard chances, one of which was of the star order and brought forth lusty cheers from the Scranton delegation in the grand stand. The game was virtually decided in the eighth inning by a double from Payne's bat, while three men were on bases. Georgetown made a grand rally in the eighth, but the four runs which they made were not enough to catch Princeton. The last inning was marked by Harley's great base running, stealing second, third and home. GEORGETOWN. R. H. O. A. E. RECEIVER HARRIS' DEMAND Will Be Considered by the Anthracite Coal Operators. MATTER OF FIRE INSURANCE. Advisability of Entering into a Mutual Arrangement Similar to That of Cotton Mill Owners Will Be Considered. Those Who Will Attend. The most important meeting of the year of individual coal operators, the Anthracite Coal Operators' association, will be held tomorrow in the Hotel Waldorf, New York. Following a banquet, which begins at 1:30 o'clock, will be held the meeting and election of officers. Many Scranton operators will be present for New York yesterday and others will go during today. William Connell, president of the association, will preside. Among other matters the meeting will discuss mutual fire insurance on the plan so common among cotton mill owners. The fire insurance committee, of which W. T. Smith, of this city, is chairman, and which has had an insurance expert examining coal properties for some time, will make its report. The demand of the Reading company through its President and Receiver, Harris, that the road be granted 21 per cent. of the output will receive attention. Mr. Harris' demand is considered unreasonable, and, although he claims to have proof of being entitled to so great a percentage, he refuses to arbitrate.

Many Lackawanna Operators. Operators consider the trade in an unsettled and unfortunate condition, which promises a larger attendance than at any previous meeting. There are more members in the Lackawanna valley than any other region, and the following list will show that many of them are present. Dr. J. N. Rice, Blue Ridge Coal company; R. J. Matthews, Austin Coal company; T. H. Watkins, Babylon Coal company; T. C. Von Storch, Blue Ridge Coal company; William Connell, Connell & Co.; W. H. Richmond, Elk Hill Coal and Iron company; J. C. McClure, Elliot, McClure & Co.; H. P. Simpson, Edgerton Coal company; C. P. Matthews, Florence Coal company; R. G. Brooks, Greenwood Coal company; John Jernyn, Joseph Jernyn, Jernyn & Co.; O. S. Johnson, Lackawanna Coal company; T. H. Dale, Lanceliff Coal company; W. G. Parke, Mt. Lookout Coal company; E. P. Kingsbury, Moosic Mountain Coal company; W. W. Watson, Mt. Jessup Coal company; W. L. Connell, Enterprise Coal company; E. B. Sturges, New York and Scranton Coal company; E. L. Fuller, Old Forge Coal company; C. M. Sanderson, Pancoast Coal company; J. J. IN LOCAL THEATERS. Tomorrow evening that clever young comedian, Charles Dickson, will be seen at the Academy of Music in his entertaining light comedy, "Incoq." It will be preceded by the famous curtain raiser, "The Salt Cellar," in which Mr. Dickson will also have a part. Tomorrow night the Excelsior Athletic club will give its annual tournament at the Frothingham and it promises to surpass in interest any of its predecessors. There are a large number of good men entered who will give fine exhibitions of scientific boxing. Some of the best members of the American Amateur Athletic union are entered for the various events. Paul Dresser and a clever company will produce the satirical farce-comedy, "A Green Goods Man," at the Academy of Music Friday night. In the company is Edwin, the famous who has created such a sensation. The comedy deals with low life in New York city, having for its theme the green goods swindle. Miss Anna Dickinson will lecture at the Frothingham Friday night on her favorite theme, "Jeanne D'Arc." Her powers as an orator and word painter are well known and there is no doubt that she will attract a very large audience. An event of theatrical importance will be the appearance of John Drew at the Academy of Music on Saturday evening in "The Butterflies," Henry Clay Carter's comedy, which ran with great success for over 150 nights at Palmer's theater, New York. The comedy will be given with all the scenery used during the New York run, and the original cast, including Maud Adams, Anna Belmont, Olive Herkley, Virginia Buchanan, Harry Harwood, Lewis Baker, Arthur Byron, Leslie Allen, Frank Lamb and others.

The interest taken in the forthcoming production of the military drama, "Allatona," at the Frothingham by Scranton amateurs for the benefit of the army fund ensures large audiences. It will be seen every night from April 22 to 27, inclusive, with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday. The announcement that the "White Crook" company returns to Davis' theatre for the last three days of the week will be received with pleasure by DID YOU KNOW That we carry more Pictures than all the other firms in the city put together. We want you to know. You are more than welcome to come in and look around. Don't Ask You to Buy, Either. Just put another hand at frame making. Don't make much on each picture framed, but how they pour in. REXFORD & CO., 215 LACKAWANNA AVE. Wall Paper Styles and colorings are very fine this season. Let us fix you up a sample room with nice Gilt Paper, $5.

ALLATOONA NOTES. A dress rehearsal was held at the Frothingham last evening. The diagram will be open at the box office at 9 a. m. Thursday, April 18. Larry Ketric, in a comedy role, will introduce a number of his inimitable imitations. E. F. Kingsbury is in New York procuring costumes for the production of the drama. Messrs. Ketric and Kingsbury will introduce a number of new specialties during the week. The ladies of the committee report that they are meeting with great success in the sale of the tickets. One of the thrilling incidents of the play will be the famous reply of General Corcoran, while badly wounded, to General Sherman's dispatch from Kenesaw. Rehearsal tonight at 8 o'clock sharp at the Central Republican club rooms. On Saturday night a dress rehearsal at the Frothingham at 7:30 o'clock sharp. Convention of Young Women. The Young Women's Christian association have a convention in Pittsburg this week. The sessions open Thursday with an address by Dr. J. Q. A. Henry, of San Francisco. G. C. Stebbins has charge of the music. Scranton delegates are Miss Hannah Deacon and Miss Tomkinson, and it is expected that other members will go also. The meetings will be full of interest, and the reception of delegates by the large and enthusiastic association of Pittsburg will be a cordial one. We show samples of high grade printing in catalogues and booklets—The Tribune Printing Department.
